To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the opportunity to work with CBSS for four years during my tenure at Carson-Newman College. They have been extremely professional, incredibly efficient, and exceptionally helpful. I have wholeheartedly recommended them to a number of colleagues and have heard good reports regarding their work. For a college or university who is seeking to diversify their student-search needs, CBSS is definitely the route to go.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Huebner, Jr., Ph.D.

Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management
