To Whom It May Concern:

I have worked with Clayton Allan and CBSS for over a year now and could not be any happier. The names that I purchased from CBSS were well organized and have helped us recruit students more effectively this past year. They have always looked to my needs as a customer. Clayton Allan is someone that is easy to talk with and really does have a desire to see you succeed. I always feel taken care of when I have a concern or question. CBSS is a company that I will keep doing business with for these reasons.

Sincerely,

Eric Ingmire
Director of Admissions
